

ASLIA NEW SOUTH WALES
Australian Sign Language Interpreters' Association

Introduction to Mentoring Workshop

Julie is a practising Auslan/English Conference level (English to Auslan) interpreter, with over 30 years experience in the field. She holds a Bachelor of Education (LOTE – Auslan) from LaTrobe University and an MA in Auslan/English Interpreting from Macquarie

University. Julie was formerly the Co-ordinator of the VDEI/ASLIA Victoria mentoring program for ES staff who interpret in classrooms within Victoria. Julie has delivered several workshops and training opportunities to interpreters. Julie has undertaken training in and conducted Reflective Practice opportunities for interpreters along with training in diagnostic performance analysis of practitioners from Northern Colorado University. Julie is currently president of ASLIA Victoria and has previously served on national and the state branch executive committees. Julie is motivated and enthusiastic about her recent appointment to interim chairperson of ASLIA Inc. Julie is committed to enhancing the quality of interpreting provision and providing quality educational opportunities for interpreter practitioners.

Sandra has been a founding member of the sign language association in Victoria since it started in 1986 as AVID. Originally a teacher of the Deaf, Sandra (or Sandi as she is mostly known) has always lived and worked in Melbourne. She was accredited by NAATI as an Auslan/English Professional level interpreter in 1990 and has worked as an interpreter trainer and practitioner for many years. She has been involved in developing and coordinating the ASLIA Victoria Mentor Program and Mentor Training Program since 2008 and is passionate about mentoring as the most effective Professional Development tool. She is the current Program Manager of interpreting at Auslan Connections Vicdeaf. Sandi has served as an ASLIA Executive Committee member, and as a Committee member, Vice President and President of ASLIA Victoria. A proud and committed ASLIA member.
